IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA
AT CHANDIGARH

CRM-M-33180-2026
Decided On: 12.06.2026

MUKHTIAR SINGH AND ANR

....PETITIONER(S)

VERSUS

STATE OF PUNJAB

....RESPONDENT(S)

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE SANDEEP MOUDGIL

Present: Mr. Ritesh Chaoudhary, Advocate for the petitioner
Mr. Satjot Singh Chahal, AAG Punjab

SANDEEP MOUDGIL, J. (ORAL)

1. Prayer

The jurisdiction of this Court has been invoked under Section 482 of the BNSS, 2023 for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner in FIR No.93 dated 16.05.2026 under Sections 351(2), 115(2), 118(1), 190, 191(3) BNS later on added offence under Section 118(2) BNS registered at Police Station Rangar Nangal, Batala, District Batala (Gurdaspur).

2. Contention

On behalf of the petitioner

Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that he seeks to withdraw the petition qua petitioner No. 1.

Prayer is accepted.

Dismissed as withdrawn qua petitioner No.1.

So far as petitioner No. 2 is concerned, it is submitted that she has been falsely implicated in the present case. He argued that injury whatsoever attributed to petitioner No.2 is declared simple in nature, and the alleged occurrence is stated to have arisen out of a road rage incident. It is further submitted that petitioner No. 2 is ready and willing to join the investigation and cooperate with the Investigating Agency.

Notice of motion.

On behalf of the State

On the asking of the Court, Mr. Satjot Singh Chahal, AAG Punjab accepts notice on behalf of the respondent–State and vehemently opposes the prayer made by learned counsel for the petitioner stating that allegation against petitioner No.2 are serious in nature. However, he could not produce any incriminating material to connect petitioner No.2 with the alleged offence.

3. Analysis

Considering the fact that the injury caused by petitioner is declared simple in nature and State could not produce any incriminating material to connect petitioner No.2 to the alleged offence added with the fact that she has undertaken that she is ready and willing to join the investigation and cooperate with the Investigating Agency, this Court finds no reason to decline the present petition.

4. Relief:-

Hence, the petitioner No.2 is directed to be released on anticipatory bail subject to her joining investigation with the Investigating Officer concerned within a period of one week from today, on furnishing of personal/surety bonds to his satisfaction. Petitioner No.2 shall also abide by the terms and conditions as envisaged under Section 482(2) of BNSS, which are reproduced below:-

‘When the High Court or the Court of Session makes a direction under sub-section (1), it may include such conditions in such directions in the light of the facts of the particular case, as it may think fit, including-

- (i) a condition that the person shall make himself available for interrogation by a police officer as and when required;*
- (ii) a condition that the person shall not, directly or indirectly, make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade him from disclosing such facts to the Court or to any police officer;*
- (iii) a condition that the person shall not leave India without the previous permission of the Court;*
- (iv) such other condition as may be imposed under sub-section (3) of section 480, as if the bail were granted under that section.’*

However, it is made clear that in case petitioner No.2 does not comply with the aforesaid direction of joining the investigation within a period of one week, the order passed by this Court today shall automatically stands cancelled.

In the aforesaid terms, the present petition stands disposed of.
Pending application(s), if any shall disposed off, accordingly.
