SANDEEP MOUDGIL, J. (ORAL)

* * * *

1. The present writ petition has been filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India seeking issuance of appropriate directions to the official respondents to ensure protection of the life and personal liberty of the petitioner from the alleged threat posed by respondent Nos. 4 to 8.

2. The matter was taken up for hearing today. However, when the case was called, none appeared on behalf of the petitioner. There is no request for pass over nor any application seeking adjournment.

3. The conduct of the petitioner in remaining unrepresented despite the matter being taken up indicates that they are no longer interested in pursuing the present proceedings. It is well settled that a litigant who invokes the extraordinary writ jurisdiction of this Court is required to diligently prosecute the petition and assist the Court in adjudication of the issues raised therein. In the absence of any representation on behalf of the petitioner, this Court is left with no option but to infer that the petitioner has abandoned the present proceedings.

4. Accordingly, finding no justification to keep the matter pending, the present writ petition is dismissed for non prosecution.

5. Pending miscellaneous application(s), if any, shall also stand disposed of accordingly.
