...Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE DEEPINDER SINGH NALWA

Present: Mr. Khalid Tauru, Advocate for the petitioner
Through video conferencing.

DEEPINDER SINGH NALWA, J. (Oral)

1. The petitioner has filed the present petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India for issuance of a direction to respondents No.1 to 3 to protect the life and liberty of petitioner from the hands of private respondents No.4 to 17.

2. The brief facts of the case are that son of the petitioner, namely, Jahir and one girl-Rihana, daughter of Sehzaad, resident of village Khori Jamalpur, District Faridabad, are major and were in a relationship with each other of their own free will and consent. However, the family members of the girl were opposing the said relationship. The petitioner along with his son submitted a representation seeking protection of life and liberty apprehending danger at the hands of the girl's family members. The son of the petitioner along with his friend Rihana approached this Court by filing a petition seeking protection of their life and liberty. The said petition was disposed of vide order dated 01.04.2026 (Annexure P-3) with a direction to respondent No.2 therein to consider the representation submitted by the petitioners therein and to take an appropriate action as per law. A perusal of the case file would show that the petitioner and his another son, namely, Saikul was beaten and physically assaulted by the girl's family members and were threatened. The petitioner again submitted a representation dated 20.05.2026 (Annexure P-5) before respondent No.2 for seeking protection of life and liberty of the petitioner and his son, namely, Saikul. As per the petitioner, no action has been taken on the abovesaid representation by the respondents. As such, the petitioner has filed the present petition.

3. Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner, on instructions from the petitioner, submits that the petitioner would be satisfied, if at this stage, direction is given to respondent No.2 to decide the representation dated 20.05.2026 (Annexure P-5) submitted by petitioner in a time-bound manner.

4. Learned State counsel does not oppose the prayer made by the learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner.

5. In view of the above and without commenting upon the merits of the case, the present petition is hereby disposed of with a direction to respondent No.2 to consider and decide the representation dated 20.05.2026 (Annexure P-5) submitted by the petitioner and to assess the threat perception to the petitioner and after considering the
