Date of Decision:- 01.06.2026

RAVINDER KUMAR AND ANR

.....Petitioners

Versus

STATE OF HARYANA AND ORS.

.....Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ALOK JAIN

Present: Mr. Nirmal Singh, Advocate for the petitioners.

ALOK JAIN, J. (Oral)

1. The present petition has been filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India for issuance of a writ in the nature of mandamus directing the official respondents to protect the life and liberty of the petitioners at the hands of private respondents.

2. Learned counsel for the petitioners inter alia contends that both the petitioners who are adults have got married on 25.05.2026 and due to the threat being faced from private respondents, they have moved a representation dated 27.05.2026 (Annexure P-5).

3. Notice of motion to the official respondents.

4. Mr. Amandeep Singh Samra, AAG, Punjab, accepts notice on behalf of the official respondents.

5. The present petition has been filed merely on the basis of a apprehension of threat, and there is no cogent material on record to substantiate any genuine threat perception. Moreover, admittedly, the petitioners have been residing in the house of respondents No.4 and 5 since their marriage on 25.05.2026. It is strange that, on the one hand, the petitioners claim to apprehend a threat to their life and liberty, while, on the other hand, they continue to reside in the same house with the persons from whom they allegedly apprehend such threat. This petition is apparently contradictory.

6. Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that, in fact, the parents of petitioner No.2 have severed all relations with her, and it is for this reason that the parents of petitioner No.1 are opposed to their relationship.

7. The present petition is being considered only for the purpose of protection of life and liberty of the petitioners and the filing, pendency or the orders passed by this Court in this petition shall neither be construed as any stamp of the Court qua the marriage of the petitioners nor shall be relied upon by any authority in any proceedings initiated against the petitioners under any other provision of law, hence, there is no necessity to serve the private respondent(s) or to seek a reply from them.

8. In view of the above, the petition is disposed of with a direction to respondent No.2- Superintendent of Police, District Kurukshetra, to take into consideration the request of the petitioners made vide representation dated 27.05.2026 (Annexure P-5) and take appropriate action, in accordance with law and in terms of the guidelines/SOPs issued vide judgment passed by a Coordinate Bench of this Court in CRWP-12562-2023 dated 14.06.2024.

9. It is made clear to the petitioners that, in case, any averments made in this petition or in the representation dated 27.05.2026 (Annexure P-5) are found to be incorrect, the State authorities are directed to take appropriate action, in accordance with law.

10. However, since this petition is being disposed of in limine, therefore, copy of the complete paper book be sent through registered post to respondent Nos.4 and 5-parents of petitioner No.1.

11. Although, the State is duty bound to protect its citizens, however, in case, there is any criminal record of the petitioners, the present order shall not be an alibi or an impediment against the authorities to proceed in accordance with law and the above order is subject to cross verification of the antecedents of the petitioners. Furthermore, it will be the responsibility of the concerned SHO to verify the original documents demonstrating the correct age and residential address of the petitioners before considering their representation after getting the same counter-checked by the private respondents.
