IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

CRM-M-33384-2026
Decided On: 09.06.2026

MANPREET SINGH....PETITIONER(S)*VERSUS*STATE OF PUNJAB*....RESPONDENT(S)*CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE SANDEEP MOUDGIL*Present: Mr. Gaurav Vir Singh Behl, Advocate for the petitionerSANDEEP MOUDGIL, J. (ORAL)*1. Prayer

The jurisdiction of this Court has been invoked under Section 482 of the BNSS, 2023 for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner in FIR No.150 dated 11.05.2026 under Section 303(2), 317(2) and 3(5) BNS (erstwhile 379, 411 and 34 IPC) registered at Police Station Amargarh, District Malerkotla (Annexure P-1).

2. ContentionOn behalf of the petitioner

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in the present case. It is argued that the petitioner was not named in the FIR and has been arrayed as an accused solely on the basis of the disclosure statement made by a co-accused, namely Prem Singh @ Pappu. Learned counsel further points out that the said co-accused has already been granted the concession of regular bail by the learned Judicial Magistrate First Class, Malerkotla, vide order dated 27.05.2026.

It is further submitted that another co-accused, namely Sukhvinder Singh @ Sukha, has also been enlarged on regular bail vide order dated 21.05.2026. Learned counsel contends that apart from the aforesaid disclosure statement, no independent or corroborative material has been brought on record to connect the petitioner with the commission of the alleged offence. It is also submitted that the petitioner is ready and willing to join the investigation and to cooperate with the investigating agency in all respects.

Notice of motion.

On behalf of the State

On the asking of the Court, Mr. Yatin Buner, AAG Punjab accepts notice on behalf of the respondent–State and vehemently opposes the prayer made by learned counsel for the petitioner by submitting that the petitioner along with his co-accused were found in possession of cars stolen by them and as such, the petitioner is not entitled to be released on bail.

3. Analysis

Having heard learned counsel for the parties and perused the record, this Court finds that the petitioner was not named in the FIR and has been implicated on the basis of the disclosure statement of a co-accused. It is also not disputed that the co-accused Prem Singh @ Pappu and Sukhvinder Singh @ Sukha have already been granted the concession of regular bail by the competent Court. At this stage, no independent material has been pointed out by the State to demonstrate the direct involvement of the petitioner beyond the aforesaid disclosure statement.

The petitioner has further undertaken in para 10 of the present petition that he is ready and willing to join the investigation and shall fully cooperate in its furtherance. Therefore, this Court finds no reason to decline the present petition.

4. Relief:-

Hence, the petitioner is directed to be released on anticipatory bail subject to his joining investigation with the Investigating Officer concerned within a period of one week from today, on furnishing of personal/surety bonds to his satisfaction. The petitioner shall also abide by the terms and conditions as envisaged under Section 482(2) of BNSS, which are reproduced below:-

‘When the High Court or the Court of Session makes a direction under sub-section (1), it may include such conditions in such directions in the light of the facts of the particular case, as it may think fit, including-

(i) a condition that the person shall make himself available for interrogation by a police officer as and when required;

(ii) a condition that the person shall not, directly or indirectly, make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade him from disclosing such facts to the Court or to any police officer;

(iii) a condition that the person shall not leave India without the previous permission of the Court;

(iv) such other condition as may be imposed under sub-section (3) of section 480, as if the bail were granted under that section.’

However, it is made clear that in case the petitioner does not comply with the aforesaid direction of joining the investigation within a period of one week, the order passed by this Court today shall automatically stands cancelled.

In the aforesaid terms, the present petition stands allowed.

Pending application(s), if any shall disposed off, accordingly.
