ALOK JAIN, J. (Oral)

1. The present petition has been filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India for issuance of an appropriate writ in the nature of mandamus directing the official respondents to protect the life and liberty of the petitioners at the hands of private respondents.

2. A perusal of the paper book reveals that there is no cogent material to demonstrate any threat perception to the petitioners. The sole basis for seeking protection is that the parties have solemnized marriage allegedly against the wishes of mother of petitioner No. 1, who is stated to be a widow. The petitioner No. 2 is admittedly serving in Government service and, prima facie, the present petition appears to have been instituted merely to create an alibi, in case, any criminal proceedings or FIR are initiated against him.

3. In the absence of any threat perception to the petitioners, this Court does not find any merit in the present petition, Accordingly, the same is dismissed.

4. It is made clear that filing or pendency of this petition or any order/direction passed in this petition shall not be an alibi or defence to the petitioners, in case, they are found to be involved in any illegal activity and the respondent-Authorities shall take appropriate action, in accordance with law.
